
2008 CHARDONNAY

“The word classic is overused in wine writing. I certainly have done my share and probably more than my share of describing a wine as a classic in my time. Classic this, classic that, makings of a classic, this is classic drinking and so on and on. But seriously this Margaret River Chardonnay is just that. Classic wine, classic drinking and a classic MR Chardonnay that will be so for quite a few years to come. And yes whilst I do have other words in my wine vocabulary to describe it I shall choose not to in this case. Hand-picked, minimal intervention, low yields for the purists, for the hedonists I tell you it is pure indulgence and luxuriant drinking. Try it with a homemade butter chicken.

92-93/100 – Excellent”
