

SOUTH BY SOUTHWEST

2006 CHARDONNAY

"I don't often use the word luscious often to describe a Margaret River Chardonnay but luscious does it for this one. Not overly luscious may I add. No just right luscious it is. And along with classic varietal peach, melon, citrus lemons and limes, you get a well rounded soft flavoursome real Chardonnay, imparted with a light spiciness and a simple acidity that just glides along with the fruit to make it ever so user friendly right til the end. I am sure the 07 and 08 samples are floating around the samples room somewhere but this is pressing my wine buttons right now.

Food Match: grilled fish, thai herbs;

Alc: 13.0%; Rating: 93/100 – Excellent"

"This was an excellent vintage for Chardonnay. It is medium-bodied and is displaying intense stone fruit and zesty citrus characters. Persistent palate with a zingy acidity to finish. Ideal wine for drinking over the next year or so. 89/100"
